MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Business Development Committee

Dear Fellow Members,

In a blink of an eye, we are fast approaching the second quarter of 2022.

As Singapore learns to live with COVID-19, so are we at The Grassroots' Club. We have learnt a lot from this pandemic, including the fact that times are changing and that more digital transformation is on the way, which will hopefully enhance our members' club experience even more.

We started formulating a fresh approach for the Club's future development as we entered 2022. We are working quietly but steadily behind the scenes to re-strategise and enhance the Club's commercial development. This includes actively assessing and selecting potential tenants, reviewing our tenancy agreements, and rebranding The Grassroots' Club. We will have more to share with you soon.

We are optimistic that this year will bring exciting new endeavours and are delighted to be embarking on this journey with you.

Mr Gopal Krishnan, JP, BBM

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the first issue of 2022!

To start the year on a high note, we've put together an introduction of all the tenants currently located at the Club. For this handy list of all the merchant services available within our premises, check out pages 8 and 9.

In other exciting news, the Club is gradually bringing back the events you love in a safe and enjoyable way! We hosted a golf game at Orchid Country Club on 29 March — our first in several years. Please look out for more opportunities to reconnect with us and fellow members in person very soon!

There are plenty of perks of being a TGC member. Check out page 10 for the latest Membership Privileges and keep flipping for other merchant deals that we have secured just for you.

Remember, the best way to stay up to speed on the latest news, events, promotions and discounts is to connect with us on Facebook and follow TGC on WhatsApp and Telegram.

Take care, stay safe and see you at TGC!

EAT, DRINK and Be Merry

Enjoy the best of both worlds at the Builder's Bar, a new Thai-Western restaurant and bar at the Grassroots' Club.

If you have visited the Grassroots' Club recently, you may have noticed an interesting addition to the club's F&B scene — a casual but stylish alfresco space with a tuk-tuk perched out front.

Say hello to the Builder's Bar.

Inspired by the trendy container restaurants that have been popping up in Bangkok, Singapore and across Asia, the Builder's Bar is fully constructed with metal. The ambience, however, is warm and welcoming with a vibe that appeals to families and working adults alike.

Get your Mookata fix

The team behind the Builder's Bar is no stranger to Singapore's competitive F&B landscape. They already run two restaurants in Punggol: one serves Thai cuisine; the other specialises in Western food. The Builder's Bar is a clever amalgamation of everything they know best and is self-described as a Thai-Western fusion concept.

While the menu is varied, the Mookata is undoubtedly the star of the show. Come here for reasonably-priced fresh ingredients and a special housemade chilli sauce that has consistently earned a thumbs-up from patrons. The Mookata is most popularly enjoyed with side dishes like the Thai Prawn Cake and Thai-Style BBQ Pork Satay — a satisfying meal, indeed!

WHAT IS MOOKATA?

Mookata originates from Thailand, where it's also known as Mu Kratha. 'Mu' means pork and 'Kratha' refers to a skillet or pan, so the popular dish essentially involves grilling pork (and other ingredients) on a dome-shaped pan. The grill is encircled by a moat of broth, so the experience is not unfamiliar to Singaporeans — almost like a cross between Korean barbeque and Chinese steamboat.

Kick back and relax

The Builder's Bar is quickly becoming the preferred watering hole in the neighbourhood. While it only opened its doors in August last year, it is already attracting healthy patronage with its cool, laidback vibe, alfresco seating and extensive list of alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages. It's the perfect spot to relax over a round of drinks and some delicious finger food.

The Builder's Bar is open to members of the public. For the latest promotions, follow @thebuildersbar.sg on Facebook.

When & how often should I go for a health screening?

This differs according to your condition, but we'd generally recommend that a comprehensive health screen is done once every year for adults above 18 years of age.

Why should I go for a health screening?

Regular health screenings can help to detect health conditions early. Early detection, can result in better outcomes and lower the risk of serious complications.
